

Accountable servant leadership

Home Founders Structure Tutu Honors News and Events Programmes Publications Photo Gallery Contact Us

News

Statement issued by the Desmond and Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation – 4 July 2013

July 4, 2013 By admin With 1 comment

CAPE TOWN: 4 July 2013 – Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu has appealed to members of the Mandela family to dig deep within themselves to find the grace that their patriarch and the nation deserves at this sombre moment. “Please, please, please may we think not only of ourselves. It’s almost like spitting in Madiba’s face,”

Continue Reading →

Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu’s remarks to President Barack Obama at the Desmond Tutu HIV Foundation Youth Centre in Cape Town – 30 June 2013

July 1, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

It is a very great honour to welcome the President of the USA and his beautiful family to SA, even at a sombre time for us South Africans. It is a special joy to welcome this President to South Africa, to Africa, the continent of his forebears, the cradle of humanity. Mercifully I don’t have to compete against

Continue Reading →

Remarks by Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu at the launch of the Nelson Mandela Legacy Exhibition in Cape Town – 30 June 2013

June 30, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

We gather at a sombre time. We give thanks to God for Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela. We pray for his comfort and his dignity. We pray for his eternal peace. We ask God to sustain Madiba’s gracious and still-smitten spouse, Mrs Graca Machel, and all members of the family. We come not to lament or to

Continue Reading →

Mamphela Ramphela’s voice is worth hearing – 21 June 2013

June 21, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

By Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu South Africa’s constitutional democracy was very hard-earned. People were harassed, beaten, locked up, banished, forced into exile and killed for it. They included supporters of the UDF, ANC, PAC, BCM; members of religious, cultural, sporting, business and youth formations; young and old, men and women – across our beautiful land.

Continue Reading →

Parliament passes motion of congratulations for Archbishop Tutu – 24 April 2013

June 20, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

The Acting Deputy Chief Whip of the Majority Party moved without notice: That the House – notes that on Thursday, 4 April 2013, the US-based Templeton Foundation awarded the $1.7-million Templeton Prize to Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu for his lifelong work to promote love and forgiveness; further notes that the 81-year-old Nobel peace laureate, who

Continue Reading →

Danish artist Charlotte Weppenaar presents a painting of the Transfiguration Icon to Archbishop Tutu – 19 June 2013

June 19, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

It took a year of prayer and fine brush work for Danish artist Charlotte Weppenaar to produce this Transfiguration Icon (sometimes called Metamorphosis) for Archbishop Tutu. She presented the painting to the Archbishop on 19 June 2013. The painting, 45cm X 36cm in dimension, follows the original Byzantine Icon tradition. Painted on a wooden board

Continue Reading →

Archbishop Desmond Tutu's statement on the disappearance of Syrian church leaders – 13 June 2013

June 13, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

The violence and terror that have consumed Syria over the past two years have exacted a terrible toll. A disproportionately high number of innocent lives have been lost, including many women and children. Amidst such chaos and human suffering, to focus on any single event, or to single out individuals particularly worthy of attention, would

Continue Reading →

Comedy premiere raises funds for girls and women – 12 June 2013

June 13, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

The Desmond and Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation hosted a premiere of the Jive Funny Festival, in Cape Town on 12 June, with the aim of raising funds for projects empowering women and girls. Besides the sale of tickets, an auction of memorabilia – and an exclusive opportunity to have tea with the Archbishop – raised

Continue Reading →

Breaking the dreadful doctrine of revenge – 12 June 2013

June 12, 2013 By admin With no comments yet

Archbishop Tutu's statement to the 5th World Congress Against the Death Penalty, in Madrid: 12 June 2013 Breaking the dreadful doctrine of revenge I am a prisoner of hope. My hope is rooted in the tremendous power of human beings to forgive, and ultimately, to do what is right. I know that human beings are

Continue Reading →

Praying for Madiba's comfort – 10 June 2013

June 10, 2013 By admin With 1 comment

Statement issued for the Desmond and Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation on 10 June 2103 As the beloved father of our nation uTata Nelson Mandela once again endures the ravages of time in hospital our prayers are for his comfort and his dignity. We offer thanks to God for the extraordinary gift of Mr Mandela, and

Continue Reading →

← Older posts

Latest News

Statement issued by the Desmond and Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation – 4 July 2013

4 Jul 2013

CAPE TOWN: 4 July 2013 – Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu has appealed to members of ...

Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu's remarks to President Barack Obama at the Desmond Tutu HIV Foundation Youth Centre in Cape Town – 30 June 2013

1 Jul 2013

It is a very great honour to welcome the President of the USA and his ...

Remarks by Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu at the launch of the Nelson Mandela Legacy Exhibition in Cape Town – 30 June 2013

30 Jun 2013

We gather at a sombre time. We give thanks to God for Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela. ...

---

© Copyright 2012 Desmond and Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation